Student Ministries

Student Ministries Small Group Leader | (every Sunday evening, during school year)

Shepherd a small group of 8-12 middle school or high school students for the school year. Volunteers will lead group discussions on Sunday evenings and encourage students occasionally during the week. This role requires two and a half hours of time on Sunday evenings, a mature and growing faith, and a desire to share Christ with students. All Small Group Leaders must pass a background screen, be interviewed by our Student Ministries Staff, and abide by policies of the ministry.
